DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement filed 7/11/2003 has been considered the lined through references have not been considered because the required dates have not been provided.

Priority

It is noted that this application appears to claim subject matter disclosed in prior Application No. 09/917,445, filed 7/27/2001. A reference to the prior application must be inserted as the first sentence(s) of the specification of this application or in an application data sheet (37 CFR 1.76), if applicant intends to rely on the filing date of the prior application under 35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, 121, or 365(c). See 37 CFR 1.78(a). For benefit claims under 35 U.S.C. 120, 121, or 365(c), the reference must include the relationship (i.e., continuation, divisional, or continuation-in-part) of all nonprovisional applications. If the application is a utility or plant application filed under 35 U.S.C. 111(a) on or after November 29, 2000, the specific reference to the prior application must be submitted during the pendency of the application and within the later of four months from the actual filing date of the application or sixteen months from the filing date of the prior application. If the application is a utility or plant application which entered the national stage from an international application filed on or after November 29, 2000, after compliance with 35 U.S.C. 371, the specific reference must be submitted during the pendency of the application and within the later of four months from the date on which the national stage commenced under 35 U.S.C. 371(b) or (f) or sixteen months from the filing date of the prior application. See 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2)(ii) and (a)(5)(ii). This time period is not extendable and a failure to submit the reference required by 35 U.S.C. 119(e) and/or 120, where applicable, within this time period is considered a waiver of any benefit of such prior application(s) under 35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, 121 and 365(c). A benefit claim filed after the required time period may be accepted if it is accompanied by a grantable petition to accept an unintentionally delayed benefit claim under 35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, 121 and 365(c). The petition must be accompanied by (1) the reference required by 35 U.S.C. 120 or 119(e) and 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2) or (a)(5) to the prior application (unless previously submitted), (2) a surcharge under 37 CFR 1.17(t), and (3) a statement that the entire delay between the date the claim was due under 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2) or (a)(5) and the date the claim was filed was unintentional. The Director may require additional information where there is a question whether the delay was unintentional. The petition should be addressed to: Mail Stop Petition, Commissioner for Patents, P.O. Box 1450, Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450.

If the reference to the prior application was previously submitted within the time period set forth in 37 CFR 1.78(a), but not in the first sentence(s) of the specification or an application data sheet (ADS) as required by 37 CFR 1.78(a) (e.g., if the reference was submitted in an oath or declaration or the application transmittal letter), and the information concerning the benefit claim was recognized by the Office as shown by its inclusion on the first filing receipt, the petition under 37 CFR 1.78(a) and the surcharge under 37 CFR 1.17(t) are not required. Applicant is still required to submit the reference in compliance with 37 CFR 1.78(a) by filing an amendment to the first sentence(s) of the specification or an ADS. See MPEP § 201.11.

The first sentence of the specification does not include the relationship (i.e., continuation, divisional, or continuation-in-part) as required of all nonprovisional applications.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim 9 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Rizvi (6,168,611).

Claim 9 - the applicant's attention is invited to the embodiment of figures 5-8A, element -50'- is an arcuate needle, element -62- is a first handle, and element 68 is a second handle, opening -60'- the examiner is taking as means for associating the needle with a sling. The examiner is taking the sutures to form a sling. The needle has a first and second end.

Claim 15 - a needle as claimed is provided, the end of the needle opposite the first handle is inserted and the needle is passed through the tissue by grasping the first or second handle to control the passage of the needle.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 10, 13, 14 16 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rizvi (6,168,611) in view of Aiyama et al (5,669,101).

Rizvi teaches a needle and method as claimed but does not teach the second handle being movable along the shaft of the needle. The use of movable handles is old and well known in the mechanical tool arts. Aiyama et al teaches a movable handle adjustable longitudinally and rotationally around the shaft of a working tool. The handle 5 is adjusted to maximize the control of the tool being used. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the tool making arts at the time the invention was made to use the concept of an adjustable handle as taught by Aiyama et al with the second handle of Rizvi to provide the user of the needle the ability to adjust the second handle to maximize the control of the needle as is taught by Aiyama et al.

Claim 13 - the square edges of element -62- form gripping means as claimed.

Claim 14 - the needle 50' extends within handle -62-

Claim 16 and 17 - in using a device as described above, a needle having a first handle and a second moving handle in is the examiner's position that it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the medical arts to at the beginning of the procedure to place the movable handle towards the distal end of the needle, placing the handle near the point of the needle. One would inherently want to control the point of the needle at the beginning of the procedure to insure proper positioning of the point of the needle during insertion of the point of the needle. The needle may then be inserted to the depth at which the handle would interfere with any further insertion at which time it would be necessary to move the second handle away from the patient and towards the first handle. This process could be repeated as many times as necessary.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 11 and 12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. US Patents 4,838,282 and 7,014,232 teach related needle and handle structures.
